Dear Parent/Guardian,

GCSE English Literature Exam Text: An Inspector Calls

Students are studying a JB Priestley's play: An Inspector Calls.

The examination is 'closed book' which means that students will not be allowed to have a copy of the text in the examination. However, it would be beneficial for them to have their own copy of the text, for annotating during study in class and for revision. For this reason, we would like your child to have a copy of the recommended version which allows sufficient space for annotation (Heinemann ISBN 978-0435232825). We have chosen this edition because it is very good value for money and can be purchased on Amazon.

While a book will be available for your child to read in class, we would like your child to buy the recommended version so that they can make detailed notes in class.

If you are eligible for pupil premium funding, or if you have any other concerns regarding purchasing the text, then please speak to your English teacher.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Lydia Lutton
Head of English and Reading
